1. The Chinese Communist Politburo has ordered the freezing of the deposits of all government and government-operated organs and enterprises.
2. Local administrative personnel are to be held responsible if any commodity price fluctuations occur. All national, semi-government, and semi-private banks have been instructed to stop granting loans and to recall immediately all outstanding loans even if the loan date has not expired.
3. Starting on 25 December 1951 daily necessities will be rationed during the new year period.
4. All stocks belonging to government-operated enterprises are to be dumped.
5. JMP notes of 50,000 and 100,000 denominations have been issued, according to rumor, by the Chinese Communist People's Bank. However, these notes are not yet circulating in South China.
